

BEN-GURION AND MENUHIN DO THEIR YOGI PARTY PIECE

Two of the most famous men in the world- Ben Gurion and Yehudi Menuhin are both expert exponents of the art of Yogi.

One of the most fascinating aspects of this Oriental aid to complete relaxation - so necessary in the equally arduous, but widely different fields which Ben Gurion and Yehudi Menuhin pursue - is the difficult feat of standing on one's head.

Yehudi Menuhin was giving a series of concerts in Tel Aviv when he met the Israeli Prime Minister for a light supper in a hotel after a performance. The two men decided to hold a contest in Yogi.

Thus a circle of admiring friends were able to witness one of the most astonishing sights ever to be seen in Tel Aviv. Two top Jews standing on their heads!

(SERENA) LONDON.