PRESS CONFERENCE DISCLOSING WAR CRIMINAL STEPHEN ROYKO

The Czechoslovak Union of Anti-Fascist Fighters held a Press conference in Prague on July 27th, disclosing the war crimes of Stephan Royko, former SS Oberscharführer and deputy commander of the Small Fortress at Terezín, the Nazi concentration camp in North Bohemia.

This criminal, cursed by thousands of prisoners, is now living comfortably in Graz, Austria, with his wife, a former member of the SS auxiliary services at Terezín, who also committed crimes against humanity and caused the death of many persons in Graz, Austria.

Several witnesses - former prisoners at Terezín confirmed at the press conference that Royko killed prisoners who were gravely ill, often tortured and murdered many Jewish prisoners.

The Czechoslovak government, on whose soil Royko committed the crimes, has asked for his extradition.

125.085/1 General view of the press conference, presided by Helena Petráňková and Josef Hušek, both members of the Presidium of Czechoslovak Union of Anti-Fascist Fighters and Dr. L. Sklenář, head of the international department of the Ministry of Justice.
