

وكالة التصوير الفوتوغرافي
P.

7410

20th. ANNIVERSARY OF THE DESTRUCTION OF LIDICE (JUNE 10th. 1942).

More than 300 people from abroad are expected to visit Lidice on June 10 to recall the 20th. anniversary of the razing of the Czech village by the Nazis.

The whole world will mark this anniversary. News arriving from more than 40 countries tells of the actions scheduled for this event. To Lidice itself, people will come from France, Italy, Britain, the Latin American countries and from all the Communist countries.

The objective of the campaign is to recall to the people the horrors of war, and in particular the continuing suffering of many survivors.

To break the mounting resistance of the Czech people against the Nazi invaders, Hitler sent his Chief of Police Heydrich, to Bohemia in 1941. But even the terror which this experienced hangman unleashed failed to intimidate the people, and in the spring of 1942 the resistance movement took the offensive. The assassination of Heydrich, who was killed by resistance fighters on May 27th. 1942, was therefore used by the Nazis as a welcome pretext for mf.